Who should attend?
- ED nurses, physician extenders, and physicians providing care for senior citizens
- Hospitalists, Geriatricians, Surgeons, and Primary Care providers
- Hospital Administrators
- Nursing home directors
- Pharmacists, Physical Therapy, and Case Management services
- Home Health and Community Organizations like AARP and Alzheimer’s Association

Why should you attend?
- Understand transdisciplinary, geriatric guideline-based approaches to common ED scenarios
- Network with local resources to build senior-friendly capacity within your institution
- Earn up to 9-hours of CME including pre-conference preparatory materials.

Don Melady, MD:
Director of Geriatric EM education at University of Toronto; Director of Geriatric Emergency Medicine fellowship, University of Toronto; Chair of the Geriatric EM section for the International Federation of EM and the Canadian Association of Emergency Physicians; co-editor Geriatric Emergencies; creator of www.Geri-EM.com; recipient of Innovative Educator awards from both the Canadian College of Family Physicians and the Canadian Geriatric Society.

Chris Carpenter, MD, MSc:
Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine Washington University in St. Louis, American Geriatrics Society Fellow, President-SAEM for Geriatric Emergency Medicine, Past-Chair ACEP Geriatric Section, Deputy Editor-in-Chief Academic Emergency Medicine, Editorial Boards: Journal of the American Geriatrics Society and Annals of Internal Medicine’s ACP Journal Club, Faculty Emergency Medical Abstracts.
To aid in the planning and food
Please register for the event at the following link:

https://slu.az1.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_2gAtRHFWP4FRSXH